

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Emory Faculty Impact Forum

THE GLOBAL SOUTH

Emory Faculty Impact Forums are designed by the Office of the Provost to convene faculty from across the university to stimulate interdisciplinary connection, collaboration, and community. By doing so, the series seeks to advance priority areas of cross-disciplinary research.

NOVEMBER 1, 2018
THURSDAY
5:30 P.M.

Emory Conference Center Hotel
The reception will be in the Garden Overlook room and dinner in the Lullwater Ballroom.

Hosted by Provost Dwight A. McBride
PANELISTS

Ellen Ott Marshall (Moderator)
Associate Professor of Christian Ethics and Conflict Transformation

Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im
Charles Howard Candler Professor of Law
Senior Fellow, Center for the Study of Law and Religion

Subha Xavier
Associate Professor of French

Jeffrey Lesser
Samuel Candler Dobbs Professor of History
Director, Halle Institute for Global Research and Learning

One Emory: Engaged for Impact

Emory will be recognized as a leading research university that fosters excellence and attracts world-class talent to innovate today and prepare leaders for the future.

one.emory.edu